

radleygreen.co.uk

Recruiting experts

Finance & accounting recruitment specialists

Are you struggling to find the right finance talent? Feeling overwhelmed by the process, or throwing away money and time on recruitment that doesn't stick?

Finding and retaining top-tier finance talent is tougher than ever.

Organisations are grappling with a dynamic and highly competitive market, making the search for top tier finance professionals an absolute must.

We stand at the forefront of this challenge and close the finance skills gap for your business to harness the value of a people-first strategy.

Trust us to secure the right talent for your business, quickly and cost effectively.

It's personal

We're all about ensuring our clients achieve remarkable hiring success. Once you've teamed up with us, we want you to reflect and wonder how you ever managed hiring before, without us. That's the difference we aim to make. It's the driving force behind everything we do.

Radley Green has been fantastic to work with on our finance roles. They are so professional, knowledgeable and really take the time to understand what the business needs and how we work, and they work in a transparent and honest way which is very refreshing. I'd highly recommend working with them for finance recruitment.

Talent Partner

People Team | Ocado Retail

What we do

We partner with organisations to find and secure the best finance and accounting professionals. We know the finance market inside and out and our experienced team are easy to work with.

Our experience spans businesses of all types including start-ups, scale-ups, VC and PE backed companies through to global and FTSE listed organisations. We have built an established network of long-standing connections. When you work with us you can expect a partnership built on transparency and trust, as evidenced by the fact that a significant volume of our business is from referrals.

Our end-to-end recruitment services deliver long-term value to businesses and the people they recruit.

- > Executive / retained search for senior and strategic hires
- > Qualified Finance and Accounting professionals
- > Part-Qualified Finance and Accounting professionals
- > Transactional accounting
- > Interim and temporary

I K A W A

I have worked a few times with Radley Green and highly recommend them. I work as a consultant for two companies and in the first (G3) the team successfully and efficiently found us a fantastic Head of Finance under a tight deadline, and in the second (IKAWA) they successfully found us a new Managing Director also under a tight deadline. The team was a pleasure to work with always available, pragmatic and offered sensible commercial advice. I did not feel they were pushing us in to either case for their own fee, but totally focused on us getting the outcome we needed.

I would strongly recommend Radley Green for your recruitment needs.

Head HR & Legal
Ikawa Coffee

Why Radley Green

Our recruitment processes ensure fast and efficient recruitment that adds value to the future of your team and business.

That's because we're focused exclusively on supporting businesses to create high-performance finance teams, and partnering experienced finance professionals with the right businesses across all sectors.

We significantly reduce your hiring period and wasted time (and effort) on unnecessary interviews, and deliver long-term savings, with measurable results, that positively impact the bottom line.

Ineffective hiring costs organisations 3 times the employee's first-year earnings.

What you can expect from us

01. Quality & speed, consistently
02. Significantly improved time to hire
03. Reduced long-term hiring costs
04. Access to passive talent
05. Increased talent retention
06. A consultative recruitment partner
07. Total transparency
08. Hiring efficiencies
09. 3-month after care strategy
10. Quantifiable results

KANTAR MEDIA

Radley Green has supported Finance hiring at all levels and contract types for Kantar Group and Kantar Media during my 6 year tenure as UK&I TA Leader & Global Head of TA (respectively).

I knew the teams’ meticulous approach at briefing, appreciation and connections within the candidate market, and ability to sell the intricacies of our business to prospective employees would be a huge benefit to Kantar, as historically our suppliers had not always taken the time to appreciate us, nor the candidate, prior to determining a ‘fit’.

The “less is more” approach has always pleased my stakeholders who were used to a bombardment of CV’s, and Radley Green would genuinely take on advice from us if things were not quite right with the profiles sent (or we pivoted on our requirement halfway through a hiring process!).

Flexibility, understanding, and experienced recruiters who care more about long term relationships with both client and candidates, is rare to come across.

Global Head of Talent Acquisition
Kantar Media

Daragh Mulvey
Founder and Director

wework

I've used Radley Green's services for more than 6 years whilst working in the talent functions for WeWork and Kantar. The service has always been 1st class, providing me with the very best finance candidates on the market. Very easy to deal with and makes a real effort to understand our business, candidates are always well prepared when we interview them. I couldn't recommend them enough and look forward to using their service again soon.

Recruiter - Corporate Functions | International
wework

Start hiring

Get in contact today to discuss your current or future hiring needs. We'd love the opportunity to show you how we can directly add value to your organisation.

Daragh started Radley Green in 2012 with his brother Conan after many years working for one of the world’s largest finance recruiters. Together, they decided there was another, more mature and ethical way of working and that they could disrupt the cookie-cutter approach which dominated the finance & accounting recruitment market in particular.

On a day-to-day basis, Daragh runs the business, motivates the team, trains the staff, and works on business development and securing great roles for fantastic candidates which, he says, ‘to this day is still what motivates me.’ As a recruiter, Daragh prides himself on an honest and ethical approach and believes this is paramount in providing a quality service to candidates and clients.

Outside of Radley Green, Daragh is an NZSIA level 2 qualified snowboard instructor, coaches youth Rugby, plays for his local Rugby team and is a Champion for St George’s Hospital in South London and has helped raise over £40000 for the Time for Change Appeal in the last 2 years.

Talk to us today.

- 0203 617 7100
- 07557 529 332
- daragh.mulvey@radleygreen.co.uk
- radleygreen.co.uk

